Legal Framework in Texas

Texas law emphasizes the best interests of the child as the primary consideration in custody and visitation decisions. The Texas Family Code provides clear guidelines for establishing visitation rights and schedules, especially in cases involving divorced or separated parents.

- Standard Possession and Access: The law prescribes a default schedule for non-custodial parents, which can be modified based on the child's needs and parental circumstances.
- Parenting Plans: Courts often require parents to develop a parenting plan that includes visitation schedules, which courts may approve if they serve the child's best interests.
- Modification and Enforcement: Visitation arrangements can be modified if circumstances change, and enforcement mechanisms are in place to uphold court orders.

Overview of the 2014 Standard Visitation Schedule

The 2014 calendar provides a standardized schedule designed to promote consistent and meaningful contact between children and their non-custodial parents. While individual arrangements may vary, the standard schedule offers a baseline for most cases.

Regular Visitation Schedule

Typically, the standard visitation schedule in Texas includes:

- Weekends: Every other weekend from Friday evening through Sunday evening.
- Weekday Visitation: One or two weekday evenings per week, often from after school until bedtime or a designated time.
- Holiday Schedule: Alternating holidays, such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, Memorial Day, and Labor Day.
- Summer Vacation: Extended visitation periods, usually lasting for several weeks, with arrangements made in advance.

Typical Weekly Schedule in 2014

While specific dates can vary, a typical week under the 2014 standard might look like:

- Friday: Non-custodial parent picks up the child after school, returning Sunday evening.

- Sunday: Child returns to custodial parent by a specified evening.

This schedule aims to balance the child's need for stability with the child's relationship with both parents.

Holiday and Special Occasion Arrangements in 2014

Holidays often require special planning to ensure that both parents can spend quality time with their children. The 2014 calendar typically provides an alternating or shared holiday schedule.

Standard Holiday Schedule

In Texas, the standard holiday arrangement often includes:

- Thanksgiving: Alternates annually between parents.
- Christmas: Alternates annually or is divided, with the child spending part of the holiday with each parent.
- Spring Break: Usually alternates yearly.
- Summer Vacation: Extended time, often two to four weeks, with specific start and end dates agreed upon in advance.

Special Occasions and Additional Visitation
